Eid al-Adha also known as Bakri Eid is observed as a festival of sacrifice for Muslims, which falls on the tenth day of Dhul Hijaah. When Abraham was doing all prepared for this then Allah revealed to him that Abraham's sacrifice had been fulfilled. Here are some wishes, greetings and pictures that you can share with your loved ones. An essential part of the celebration is the sacrifice of goats. In fact most mosques are packed with large groups of people but this year will be different due to government restrictions. The sacrificed meat is divided into three parts - the family who sacrificed it, extended families and those who are in need. For the unversed, Eid al-Adha, also known as the festival of sacrifice is the last month of the muslim lunar calendar. Thanks to all of you and I wish you all a very Happy Bakra Eid. It is the end of Hajj Pilgrimage (Mecca, Saudi Arabia), which is the holiest place for Muslims. May Allah ease your hardships and shower you with loads of peace, love and prosperity on this auspicious day of Eid. Eid al-Adha Mubarak to you and your loved ones.
